GOOD GAME PLAYBOOK FOR KIDS

YOUR GUIDE TO SAFE, POSITIVE AND FUN GAMING

WELCOME TO UBISOFT GOOD GAME PLAYBOOK

Games are great for relaxing and learning new things. We need to use them wisely.

This book will help you play smart and stay strong. This will make games way more fun!

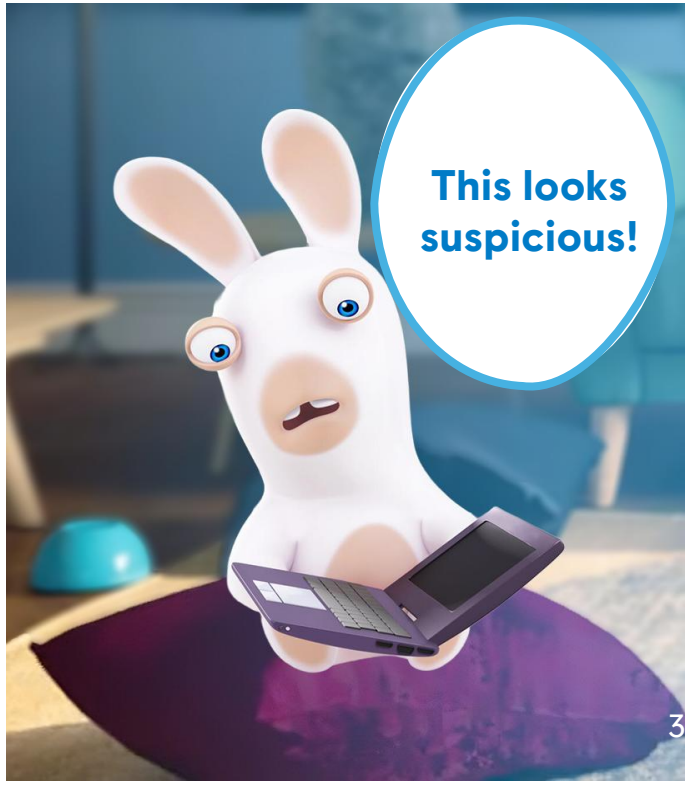
A FEW THINGS TO REMEMBER BEFORE STARTING PLAYING

NEVER CHAT OUTSIDE OF THE GAME CHAT.

NEVER BUY ANYTHING WITH YOUR PARENT'S CREDIT CARD.

DON'T CLICK ON ANY LINKS.



HAVE FUN, STAY HEALTHY & MAKE TIME FOR EVERYTHING YOU LOVE

Pick video games with your parents.

Be careful how much time you play.

Try fun things besides games, like sports, crafts, art, or music!

Take breaks!

Be active every day. Walk, do sports or go outside!

PRIVACY FIRST: NEVER LET ANYONE KNOW YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

NEVER TELL:

- Your real name, age, address, or the city you live in
- Your phone number or social media accounts
- Passwords or credit card numbers
- Anything about your family
- Your school or the places you regularly go to

If someone asks you about any of this, don't answer. Stay safe and private.

DEALING WITH TOXICITY

Sometimes, even nicest players can act mean. That's called toxic behavior, and it can hurt others and ruin the fun.

Toxic behavior can be:

Being Mean.

Calling names, mocking or saying things like "You can't play!"

Messing Up The Game On Purpose.

Blocking teammates, destroying useful objects or making your team lose

Leaving Others Out.

Refusing to play or cooperate with someone because of how they look, speak, where they're from, or who they are.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU OR SOMEONE ELSE IS BEING TREATED BADLY

Speak Up.

Say, "That's not cool." You can help stop the hurt and make the game better for everyone.

Mute, Block and Report.

Use mute and block tools to silence mean players. You can also report them, let the game team know. They're the only ones who will know you reported.

If It Upsets You.

It's okay to feel this way. You didn't do anything wrong. Take a break to feel better. Listen to music, play with your pet, or grab a snack.

And If Someone You Know Is Being Mean?

It's sometimes hard to speak up but remember you're not alone. Talk to a trusted adult.

BE SOMEONE YOU WOULD WANT TO PLAY WITH

If You're Upset, Don't Make It Personal.

It's okay to feel frustrated, but it's never okay to hurt others.

Your Words And How You Say Them Matter.

Remember that what you say has power. You're responsible for how you use it.

Think About A Time You Made A Mistake.

Did someone help you kindly or make you feel worse?

Next time someone messes up, talk to them the way you would want to be treated.

WHAT TO DO IF SOMETHING IS SCARY OR UPSETS YOU

Close It.

Tap "back" or shut your device. Don’t explore further.

Tell A Trusted Adult.

They can help, even if it feels embarrassing. You won’t be in trouble.

Ask Adults to Report It.

Making sure upsetting content is taken down means you don't have to see it again. It will also help adults support you better!

Reset Your Mood.

Give yourself a break from gaming: you could chat with a friend or find a different activity you enjoy.

HOW TO GROW STRONGER FROM TOUGH MOMENTS

If you lose, ask yourself:

What can I try differently?

When you feel like you're not playing as well as you would like, tell yourself:

I can take my time. The only thing that matters is that I am having fun.

Notice and focus on what you did well:

Today I did something I couldn't do before.

Remember, you don't have to be perfect:

I'm already good enough.

MATCH THE MESSAGES WITH THE COLORS

A Few Examples First:

"I'm going to use my ultimate ability. Cover me!"

"Haha, their username is stupid!"

"Let's talk on a different app. This one is boring."

Safe and Cooperative! Enjoy!

Toxic or Suspicious! Ignore, mute or block!

Danger! Report and tell adults!

Now It's Your Turn:

1. "Are you from London?"
2. "Focus! We've got this, guys!"
3. "Which school do you go to?"
4. "Such a bad team."
5. "How old are you?"
6. "Add me as a friend on (another game)."

CHECK OUT YOUR ANSWERS
